

COURT HOUSE

FORECLOSURE

Margaret Post has commenced suit in common pleas court against Gustave Blueler and Mary Blueler et al for the collection of $940.53 which the plaintiff alleges is due on a promissory note. Judgment is asked for the sum with interest at 6 per cent from Dec. 8, 1908 and in default of payment that the mortgage be foreclosed and the premises sold to make payment on the debt.

DAMAGES ASKED.

John E. Rinehart has brought suit in common pleas court against Summer Blackburn for $1588 damages. The plaintiff says that he is the father of Elmer Rinehart, a minor, 19 years of age and that Summer Blackburn on July 16, 1908, conducted a saloon in Osnaburg. Further that on the above date the saloonkeeper and his wife and agent, Ella Blackburn, did unlawfully and wrongfully sell intoxicating liquors to his son and while the lad was under the influence of liquor wandered out of the village and walked along the W. & L. E. tracks and was run down by a train having both his legs cut off just above the ankles. The plaintiff also says that by reason of said injuries from said drunkenness that he has been put to a large expense, the physician and surgeon's fees amounting to $368; that he has been deprived of his son's earnings which amounts to $220 and has been otherwise damaged to the amount of $1000. The plaintiff asks judgment in the sum of $1588 and the costs and that judgment against the said defendant, Summer Blackburn, may be considered a lien on the said premises of William Kester, the co-defendant.

SUES ON A NOTE

James F. Clark has brought suit in common pleas court against Caroline McCurdy for the collection of $129.22 which amount is alleged to be due the plaintiff on a note.

SUES REGISTER COMPANY.

The Griffin-Watson Construction company has brought action in common pleas court against the American Case & Register Co. for the collection of $131.21, the amount alleged to be due on a building contract. The plaintiff company alleges in the petition that it and the defendant company was a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Ohio. Further that on May 15, 1908, the defendant company entered into a contract with the Cuyahoga Concrete Stone company for the erection of a building in Salem. Later the plaintiff company entered into another contract with the same company which brought on the dispute and the defendant company refused to make payment. The plaintiff company asks judgment for the above-mentioned sum with interest from June 15, 1908, together with the costs of the litigation.

ASKS PARTITION.

Emma Essner has commenced litigation in common pleas court asking for partition of real estate belonging to the estate of Catherine Maurer, who died last March. Andrew Maurer and eight others are named as the defendants in the suit.

DELINQUENT TAXES.

County Auditor Oberlin will make publication of the delinquent tax list before Tuesday, January 5 and says there are numerous people who largely through neglect, have failed to pay the amount due Stark county. The time for the paying of the December taxes expired yesterday but grace is usually allowed so that tax payers are given until January 20 to pay them with the penalty. The law requires that the delinquent tax list be published for two full weeks before the latter date.

DECREASED FORTY-FIVE.

According to the records of marriage licenses kept in the probate office, Dan Cupid was not near so busily engaged in shooting his darts in 1908 as he was in the year preceding. The records show that in 1908 there were just 134 licenses to marry issued while in 1907 the marriage license clerk issued 1179. Generally there is a rush before New Year's day at the license counter but only six marriage permits were issued yesterday.

HARBERT MAY GET THE JOB.

Attorney Hubert C. Pontius who was recently appointed assistant prosecutor, said yesterday that he would immediately forward his resignation as a member of the deputy state board of elections to the secretary of state, who will fill the vacancy upon recommendation of the Democratic executive committee of the Central committee. The committee is composed of Joseph Munter, chairman; Emil Kauffman, secretary; Fred Witter, James Gregory, H. B. Sibila, J. B. Fierstos and Hubert C. Pontius and will meet in the next future. It was rumored yesterday that Ray Harbert will in all probability be chosen.

RELEASED ON PROBATION.

Probate Judge Boyd gave Charles Rinehart, Benjamin Boyd and Leslie Ramey, a trio of boys arrested the early part of this week for criminal offenses committed in the southern part of this city, a hearing and they were found guilty of delinquency. The boys were released on probation upon their promise to do better in the future.

RECORD

At Police Station Shows 1593 Arrests for 1908 of Which 89 Were Females. Decrease of 300 from Preceding Year.

A new police court record now graces the desk at the police station and up until 1 o'clock on the morning of January 1, 1909, there was nothing written upon its pages. The old one was closed with 1593 arrests for the year. The first name to appear on the old book was that of a man named Plum, who had been arrested for carrying too much of a load, and the last one to appear on the pages of it was Judd Wells, who was also charged with imbibing too freely of juice of the hops. The book shows that just 80 females were arrested during the year, an increase over former years. The total number of arrests marks a decrease of about 300 during the year. During the year the patrol wagon made 935 arrests, carrying to the police station 952 people. Among those who enjoyed the luxury of riding in the "hurry-up cart" were 53 women, some of them being of the "tommy" type. During the year 61 people were taken to the workhouse in the wagon.
Chief Smith said Thursday night that the decrease in the number of arrests during the year showed that the people of the city were better morally than they had been in former years and that intoxication seemed to be on the decrease also.

It is a fact that the police department has done excellent work, for during the past twelve months many thieves have been caught and much stolen property has been recovered. The discipline in the department has been excellent and the men have been working in harmony with the head of the department. The chief has worked hard to get the proper work out of his men and has succeeded admirably. He has been courteous and fair and has handled more business in his office during the past year than in any of his predecessors did in any two years of their administration of affairs. In talking to the men a week or so ago Mayor Turnbull said that if they did as good work in the coming year as they did during the past one that he would be perfectly satisfied.

TROUBLES

Encountered in Making Birth Records Complete Under New Law—Many Need Auto to Get Names.

"Oh, yes," said Dr. Frank DeHinden, the health officer, "about all the physicians, undertakers and sextons have registered at this office, but it may be possible that a few of them have not yet attended to this important duty."
"How are the reports of births coming along?" was asked.
"Very satisfactorily, I must say. We have already had 26 reports sent in since the work has been started. These records are not all complete and the work of completing some of them will entail an endless amount of labor on the part of my assistant, Miss Blanche Walters. When a blank is sent in the physician must give the full name of the child that is brought into the world, and here is where the troubles come in. People do not have their minds always made up and do not know what they will call the new arrival. In this case the physician leaves a blank space on the record that is sent to this office. We are then compelled to send a postal card to the parents asking for the information to make our records complete for the state department. Sometime children are not christened for two or three weeks after their birth and if my assistant is to fill in these records she must get the information somewhere. In case the parents fail to return the card or move away in the meantime, you can easily see the difficulty in getting the much desired information. She thinks the city will have to supply an automobile to make the rounds during busy season."

Nites—To provide for the deficit in revenue from the Dow liquor tax, Mayor Naylor strongly advocates placing a tax on all marriageable bachelors and widowers in the city.

A crowd of young men and boys accompanied by several dogs and wilding noise producing apparatus startled the echoes in a belling home Monday night at the Sahl home in honor of the daughter Minnie, married Thursday to a Wise man of Luckey, O.

After a deafening prelude the group put up the necessary circulating medium to insure each member of the group a package of "snaps" and a cigar. The couple left Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock for their Luckey home. This is the young lady who lost her wedding garments, to be, in the Sahl fire on Packer farm a few months ago.

The groom insisted that the cloth made no difference and he would marry her in a calico gown if necessary. That's the stuff.

Though it did rain, twenty-seven (27) people mostly ladies, all of Science Hill and vicinity collected at "Spider Hall" on "Hicklen Hill" at or near 10 o'clock Wednesday. Armed with swift flying needles two dozen ladies attacked a small mountain of carpet rags. With only an intermission at noon long enough to do just to a bang-up dinner, the conflict lasted till late in the afternoon. The victory was complete and the great mass of many colored rags was reduced to many neatly round balls. "Mayor" Voorhees and Sebastian Cabot, helped a little in jollying the girls, cheering and encouraging the matrons, hitching and unhitching horses and other little odd jobs in the rear.
